

Thanks to working with Elaine I realised / learnt...

“To be proud of my achievements and to use them
To highlight my skills.”

“That PhDs see the world differently and that we bring credibility and up-skilling to a company.”

“The anti-problem approach and other creative ways to view my career and what I want to do.”

“To be more positive about my future career paths wherever they may lead!”

“How to think more creatively about my skill-set and opportunities.”

“That lack of confidence is not uncommon in PhDs. I also learnt transferrable skills are as important as technical skills.”
